

www.edo.ca

Excellence in Aboriginal Economic Development

Aboriginal Economic Developer Process

The first national professional certification process designed, developed and facilitated by an Aboriginal organization.

Relevant

was developed through the DACUM (Developing a Curriculum) Process to identify the core competencies and to ensure the content was relevant to the field of Aboriginal economic development.

Accessible

recognizes Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) through the individual assessment process, you should not have to return to school for what you've already learned.

Affordable

admission fees are very reasonable, and we provide reference to a scholarship that may be available to you.

Certified

recognized by post-secondary institutions, Corporate Canada, and Aboriginal leadership.

Technician Aboriginal Economic Developer (TAED) Level

1. Aboriginal Law and Policies
2. Organizational and Financial Management
3. Governance and Leadership
4. Economics
5. Sustainable Environment and Land Stewardship
6. Lands and Resource Management
7. Project Management
8. Community Planning and Development
9. Community Based Economic Development
10. Contemporary Aboriginal Economic Development
11. Aboriginal Business Development and Entrepreneurship

How to become TAED certified

- Apply with your post secondary (or other) transcripts, and work experience
- Attend an accredited institution

Process

- Send in transcripts, resume, and other documents supporting experience and/or training
- Experience compared to 11 core competencies
- If lacking, courses researched and recommended to applicant

Accredited Post Secondary Partners

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

Master's in Development Practice:
Indigenous Development

Excellence in Aboriginal Economic Development

9635 – 45 Avenue
Edmonton, AB
T6E 5Z8

Phone: (780) 990.0303
Toll-Free: 1.800.463.9300
Fax: (780) 429.7487

edo.ca
E-mail: cando@edo.ca

facebook.com/CandoInspiringSuccess twitter.com/CandoEDO